Today, you are beholding an in-depth review on Fatima, and related international topics, a supplement to Alert: For The Times, Book of Secrets. A variety of resources have been compiled for this compendium that speaks to our day.

The world is in need of reminders where it has been. This compendium is not for the light of heart or weak. The story of Fatima traces its roots to the WWI era. Lucia became a nun of the Sisters of St. Dorothy after leaving Fatima. She left Fatima in the 1920s, placed in an orphanage and changed her name to Maria das Dores. Technically, upon being admitted to the Novitiate of the Sisters of St. Dorothy in 1926 was known as Irma Dores, Irma is Portuguese for sister, up to March 24, 1948, whereupon she turned into a cloistered nun. Throughout this compendium, it is Lucia.

Historical Keypoints

keypoint 1 May 13, 1917: Our Lady of Fatima appears for the first time high on the slope of the Cova da Iria to 3 children: Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco, appearing as a lady in white on a small oak tree, of the holm genus. She said, “I am of Heaven.” From the right hand hung a Rosary with white beads ending in a cross of silver. Her dress fell down to the feet which were on a little ermine cloud which came over the green branches of the shrub. A white veil, with edges adorned with a line of more intense light that looked almost like fine gold, covered the head, shoulders, and fell almost as low as the dress. She “radiated a light more clear and intense than crystal glass filled with water” with the rays of the Sun shining through it. This light had different tones, yellow, white, and other nuances. Her hands had a “flesh-colored light.” She said in a soft and pleasant voice, “Do not fear. I will do you no harm.” She pronounces more visitations.

keypoint 2 The Lady appeared on June 13 to the 3 children revealing the future, “I have been sent by God with a message for every man, woman and child living in this century.” Two rays of light encompassed the children who perceived a heart on the Lady, circled and pierced by thorns. She specifically told them, “Jesus wishes to make use of you, to make me known and loved. He wants to establish in the world devotion to My Immaculate Heart.”

keypoint 3 The whole sky became darker, and the temperature went down and everybody saw the sky become yellow as gold on July 13. The children were revealed secrets, one of which was the permitting of a vision of Hell—known as the First Secret of Fatima. A young engineer named Mario Godinho offered them a lift in his new Peugeot auto when they finally left. He took a snapshot of the children (right, below) when they made a brief stop near the church in Fatima, in which the kids looked horrible. That was because on July 13, everybody saw and heard the children scream. As Our Blessed Mother spoke to Lucia Her last words-in the words of Lucia- She “opened Her hands once more, as she had done during the two previous months. The rays of light seemed to penetrate the earth, and we saw as it were a sea of fire. Plunged in this fire were demons and souls in human form”. Lucia could hear the words of Our Blessed Mother. When the vision of hell was given, all three kids saw and heard the vision of hell. A solemn warning was given that July 13, followed by a promise of historic prophecy, announced three months in advance. The place. Day. And, hour. But, lastly Lucia received the Third part of the Secret: There was “an Angel with a flaming sword in his left hand. Flashing, it gave out flames that looked as though they would set the world on fire, but they died out in contact with the splendor that Our Lady radiated towards him from her right hand: pointing to the Earth with his right hand, the Angel cried out in a loud voice: Penance, Penance, Penance!

“And we saw in an immense light that is God: something similar to how people appear in a mirror when they pass in front of it, a bishop dressed in white. We had the impression that it was the Holy Father. Other bishops, priests, men and women religious going up a steep mountain, at the top of which there was a big Cross of rough-hewn trunks as of a cork-tree with the bark; before reaching there the Holy Father passed through a big city half in ruins. And half trembling with halting step, afflicted with pain and sorrow, he prayed for the souls of the corpses he met on his way; having reached the top of the mountain, on his knees at the foot of the big Cross he was killed[...]" Excerpt From: Robert C. Valentine, "Alert: For the Times, Book of Secrets." This third part of the Secret was not revealed until June 26, 2000.

keypoint 4 On a rainy day, October 13, 1917, the great miracle of Our Lady of Fatima. "The Blessed Mother outstretched her hand just as she was leaving, opened her hand and rays of light extended in the direction of the sun. The sun broke through the clouds, and gradually grew pale so all could gaze."

The sun brightened as light seemed to blend a n d g l e a m f r o m T h e Blessed Lady's hands, to paraphrase Lucia's o w n words.

It swayed and danced. It appeared as a silver saucer. Rays of multicol-

Photographs of the witnesses who were at Fatima on October 13, 1917. The town of Fatima owes its Arabic name to the daughter of a Muslim prince of Alcacer do Sal, captured by Crusader knights. One of the Christian knights was so smitten by her beauty he asked for her hand in marriage, she converted and was also baptized under the name of Oureana. A village nearby is called Ourem. Unfortunately, the beautiful princess died young, and the knight Don Goncalo in his distress gave his life to God and became a monk. To the right is Jacinta with Lucia. Study the photo directly above, umbrellas closed, the ground is dry, some even removed their hats.

There were witnesses who were atheists and Christians of many faiths. You can see an automobile (above) on the left. There were also present many reporters, but there was no moving film; before the rain or after the rain. "And ye shall know the Truth, and the Truth shall set you free." John 8:32. It is an amazing story to enlighten the spirit and the mind.

ored light streamed from the disk in every direction, every color of the rainbow; lasting several minutes. The Blessed Lady said, "I am The Lady of the Rosary" and specifically tells the children to pray the Holy Rosary every day. There were over 70,000 witnesses.

keypoint 5 August 19, 1927: A new method for a church to co-exist with the socio-political world was unveiled, by Metropolitan Sergius, known as the Adaptation for the Russian Orthodox Church, which called for the Orthodox Church to only stick to things spiritual and any deviation was considered a non-religious activity and is to be stopped. ie. cannot condemn the government. Devotions to “Mary the Priest” are forbidden.

keypoint 6 The Blessed Lady appeared to Lucia at Tuy, Spain, on June 13, 1929, to ask for the consecration of Russia with all bishops to Her Immaculate Heart; it is not publicized.

keypoint 7 Night of May 29, 1930, Sister Lucia asks in prayer what did reparation of the first five Saturdays mean. Our Eucharistic Lord told her, “The reason for the five Saturdays of the month is simple.” And, it was spelled out: It is because there are 5 types of offenses and blasphemies against the Immaculate Heart of Mary: 1. Blasphemies against Her Immaculate Conception. 2. Blasphemies against Her Perpetual Virginity. 3. Blasphemies against Her divine Maternity, in refusing at the same time to recognize Her as the Mother of humankind. 4. The blasphemies of those who publicly seek to sow in the hearts of children indifference or scorn, or even hatred for this Immaculate Mother. 5. The offenses of those who outrage Her directly in Her holy images. (Meditations can be in one or two of the 15 mysteries.)

keypoint 8 On May 13, 1931, in the presence of 300,000, Portuguese bishops consecrate the nation of Portugal to the Immaculate Heart of Mary; two years earlier they had offered a consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The Great Depression fiercely unwinds on earth.

keypoint 9 Lucia receives a message from God the Son, Jesus, Who tells her, “You console Me a great deal in asking Me for the conversion of those poor nations...” He told her, “Request it also of My Mother, while saying to Her often: Sweet Heart of Mary, be the salvation of Russia, Spain, Portugal, Europe and the whole world.” He also gave a somber analogy about the kings of France—given in a small maritime city Rianjo, Spain—of when Heaven’s commands were done late, the Church’s ministers will “follow the example of the King of France in delaying the execution;” in other words for not following the command. (Louis XIV was told certain requests in 1689 by Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque to consecrate France to the Sacred Heart of Jesus; he and his son Louis XV never did, but grandson did it late, too late in 1791 left.) He tells her, “They have not chosen to heed my request.” “They will follow him into misfortune.” It is understood that this is a future warning and will repeat itself regarding modern requests to the Pope and his bishops. The Rianjo event occurred in 1931 while Lucia was staying with a friend, but it is not publicized.

keypoint 10 Sept. 12, 1935: The bodies of Francisco and Jacinta exhumed; Jacinta’s body (actual photo, r) was found to be uncorrupted in spite of being buried in quicklime since 1919.

keypoint 11 March 19, 1937: In his Encyclical on Atheistic Communism by Pope Pius XI: ...the Catholic Church could not and does not remain silent. This Apostolic See above all is not refrained from raising its voice for it knows that its proper and special mission is to defend truth, justice and all those eternal values which Communism ignores or attacks.

keypoint 13 Feb. 6, 1938: Sister Lucia sent a letter to her bishop, Msgr. da Silva, that war was imminent, but wrote, “in this horrible war, Portugal would be spared because of the national consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary made by the bishops.”

keypoint 14 On May 13, 1938, in a sacred ceremony, Portuguese bishops made another special pilgrimage and consecration, 2 years after they vowed to do so if Our Lady protected Portugal from the Communists; the renewal was expressed after people saw the invisible hand of God protect that country; even Pope Pius XI was astonished, and made a public statement of “the Red Peril, so menacing and so close to you, and yet avoided in such an unexpected manner.”

keypoint 15 Portugal escapes the total horrors of the Spanish Civil War and World War II. Over 6,000 priests were captured and tortured in the Spanish Civil War. About 280 nuns were also captured, some were raped, some had their eyes gouged out, others were dragged by chains from fast cars until they died.

keypoint 16 After an order by the Bishop of Gurza on Oct. 24, 1940, to write to the pope and request for the consecration of the world, a most unusual visitation, kept secret from the world, whereby Lucia had a special visitation by Jesus Christ Who told her it was His wish a consecration of the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary be performed.

keypoint 17 Tri-Axis-signed Treaty for world domination, a rainbow coalition signed by Germany, Italy, Japan on Sept. 27, 1940, under a pro-military advancement, with tri-themes of 1. New World Order. 2. Racial Supremacy. 3. Anti-religious code.

keypoint 18 June 22, 1941: The USSR was invaded by Nazi Germany, 2 totalitarian socialist states at each other's throats, one a national socialist, the other an international socialist, and both despise freedom of religion, one wishes abolishing it forever.

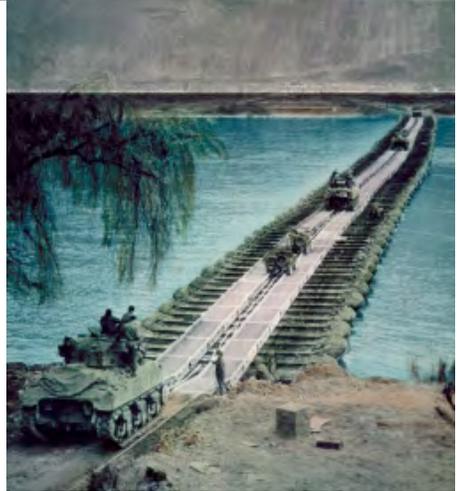

In less than 6 months, the United States enters WW II, officially with the bombing of Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941 (right). Sister Lucia writes the first 2 parts of the Secret (Aug. 31 and Dec. 8, 1941) in her secretive memoirs.

keypoint 19 Negotiating the past, a book “Meravigle di Fatima” is published by Rev. Gonzaga de Fonseca May 13, 1942, in which is revealed for the first time to the public the first 2 secrets given by the Blessed Virgin; it is claimed that to avoid offending nations, worldly affairs supersedes certain heavenly words said in 1917: the word “Russia” is replaced by “god-less propaganda” and the consecration of the world was substituted for the consecration of Russia.

keypoint 20 Pope Pius XII does a consecration twice, once on radio by himself, mentioning the “world” by name but, not Russia, Oct. 31 and Dec. 8, 1942. The partial consecrations were done to the Immaculate Heart of Mary but not in the way She originally requested. On Oct. 31, 1942, he created the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary on the Saturday after the Feast of the Sacred Heart

keypoint 21 In a secret letter to her spiritual director (dated Feb. 28, 1943) Archbishop Don M. Ferreira, Lucia told him the content of the 1940 consecration as executed in 1942, was held in approval by God, and that Lucia was told He promises the world war would be shortened. However, she also stated the “conversion of Russia is not for now.” WW II ravages on, the evil forces are free to sound the 2nd Trumpet of Revelation.

keypoint 22 January 2, 1944: Our Lady again appears to Sister Lucia and bids her to write down the third part of the secret. She writes down the Third Secret in the middle of WW II; later reveals the Blessed Mother wishes it to be revealed in 1960.

keypoint 23 June 4, 1944, the liberation of Rome.

keypoint 24 June 6, 1944, Normandy Invasion on the continent of Europe.

keypoint 25 June 17, 1944, Sister Lucia will not allow anyone but a bishop to carry the one-page letter containing the words of our Lady in the Third Secret. Up to this date it has not been given to any bishop. On this date, a bishop visits an orphanage where Sister Lucia stays, entrusts the secret to him, and he later gives it to Bishop José da Silva on the same date.

keypoint 26 Using the basic power of the universe, A-Bomb explosion, Aug. 6, 1945: God’s hand of protection is extended to eight Jesuit priests in Hiroshima less than 8 blocks from A-bomb epicenter who are spared all radiation and death; survivor Rev. Schiffer attributes it to the daily Fatima prayers and Holy Rosary recited together.

keypoint 27 The Second World War ends in 1945, about 15 million battle deaths; a minimum of 45 million civilian deaths; numbers vary. The US and USSR are the most powerful countries on the face of the Earth.

keypoint 28 May 13, 1946: Lucia returns to Fatima as Pope Pius XII crowns image of Our Lady and proclaims her “Queen of the World.”

keypoint 29 July 15, 1946: Historian William T. Walsh interviews Sister Lucia. In answer to a question from the professor, Lucia points out the Blessed Mother did not ask for the consecration of the world but only and specifically Russia; it is pointed out in his book Our Lady of Fatima, which sold over a million copies.

keypoint 30 A Dominican from N.Y. Rev. Thomas McGlynn does a statue of the Blessed Mother under Lucia’s guidance, and also interviewes her. When he read that “Our Lady has asked for the consecration of the world...” Lucia stopped him. In his book Vision of Fatima, he recalls that Lucia was emphatic in making the correction about Russia. “No!” she said, “Not the world! Russia! Russia!” Franciscan and former artist Petrus Pavlicek believed in the assistance of the Blessed Mother so much creates the Holy Rosary Crusade of Reparation in soviet-occupied Austria also in 1947. He believed that prayer could save his country. Msgr.

Harold V. Colgan establishes Marian movement The Blue Army, to increase worldwide devotion to Our Blessed Lady and Her Immaculate Heart.

keypoint 31 April 12, 1947: A strange story revolved around a converted Adventist and his children who were in a grotto near Tre Fontane, Rome (the site of St. Paul's martyrdom.) He experienced a vision of a luminous Lady who called herself the Virgin of the Revelation. At her feet lay a black cloth which had a smashed crucifix to it. Until then, the Adventist, Bruno Cornacchiola, had a hatred for the Catholic Church, but was given many messages for many years, naming a few: Satan would enter in the leading places of the Catholic Church, which will "undergo a tremendous trial" to clean the lust infiltrated among her ministers; temptations are going to be terrible; many of my sons will strip themselves of their vocation, externally by losing the outward sign of their Priesthood, I say to you again, you must wear the cassock or habit that represents your consecration and acceptance of a life that is compely offered to my Son; the world will live in such doubt amd confusion, that the elect will have to dwell themselves in the doubt! "There is no escape" he was told. To recite the Rosary, against the wrath of Satan. He was summoned by the Lady who represented God to "be reconciled to God and the Pope". Among other things, she also told him on Apr. 12 about her Assumption into Heaven, that her body could not undergo corruption, and did not. He kept diaries of what was revealed; he died in 2001 and 2 versions were later printed, the English version collected into a book The Seer The Secret of the Three Fountains by Saverio Gaeta has many missing parts from the Italian version.

keypoint 32 State of Israel proclaimed May 14, 1948. Karol Wojtla earns a doctorate in Sacred Theology from Jagellonian University. First Junction transistor invented at Bell.

keypoint 33 April 13, 1950: All priests and monks in Czechoslovakia arrested by secret police and emprisoned in special labor camps "for priests"; all their property confiscated by the State— most notorious was Jachymov, a "camp" near a uranium mine where many priests died from radiation.

keypoint 34 Sept. 11, 1950: Rev. Petrus Pavlicek and the Austrian chancellor lead a procession of prayer of some 15,000 people in Vienna, in protest of the occupying Soviet forces.

keypoint 35 Oct. 15, 1950: Interviewed by Rev. Albert Ward, Lucia tells him "Our Lady held a brown scapular in Her hands because She wants us all to wear it." *see pages in Part 4 Historical Keypoints.

keypoint 36 Oct. 30, 1950: Pope Pius XII while walking in the Vatican Gardens, stopping at the statue of Our Lady of Lourdes—after reading and studying—relates "toward the top of the hill [...] I was awestruck by a phenomenon that before now I had never seen." He saw the sun as an opaque sphere move and spin profusely—without the slightest discomfort. His description was put in a private note, which stated that he saw the solar miracle of Oct. 13, 1917 on 4 different occasions: Oct. 30, Oct. 31, Nov. 1 and Nov. 8, 1950. The handwritten note was found in the Pacelli family archives.

- keypoint 37 Nov. 1, 1950: Mary's assumption formally declared to be part of Catholic dogma.
- keypoint 38 Warner Brothers released in 1952 The Miracle of Our Lady of Fatima feature movie in color.
- keypoint 39 Recounted in Il Pellegrinaggio Dell Meraviglie, published under the auspices of the Catholic Bishops of Italy, the Blessed Mother appeared to Lucia in May 1952 and stated: "Make it known to the Holy Father that I am always awaiting the Consecration of Russia to My Immaculate Heart. Without that Consecration, Russia will not be able to convert, nor will the world have peace." [To consecrate means to dedicate, to set aside a person (or group) or thing for a holy purpose, namely in this case dedicated to the service of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. As St. Thomas Aquinas says, "Against a fact, there is no argument."]
- keypoint 40 1952: Pope Pius XII on July 7 does a consecration again, mentioning this time "the Peoples of Russia" by name. He does it alone in an Apostolic letter Sacro Vergente Anno. No Russian high-level official or Russian Orthodox bishop issued a public offense and "squawked for war." Austrian Jesuit Joseph Schweigl pays a secret visit to Sister Lucia on Sept. 2 about 3rd Secret, later reveals "...that it has two parts; one concerns the Pope." Revealed on p. 83 of Fatima, Merveille du XXe Sicle, Canon Barthas related his conversation with Sister Lucia back on Oct. 17-18, 1946 about 3rd Secret which she had told him was to be revealed in 1960. But, he pushed her "Why?" Her reply: "Because the Blessed Virgin wishes it so."
- keypoint 41 May 14, 1953, Sister Lucia receives a visit from the Armstrongs, who were able to pose the question to her on the 3rd Secret. The account was published in a book written by April and Martin Armstrong in 1955 titled Fatima, Pilgrimage to Peace. The World's Work, Kingswood Surrey, England. They were told by her that the 3rd Secret "had to be opened and divulged in 1960."
- keypoint 42 An astounding procession of lights of 80,000 people Dec. 8, 1954, in Vienna, world's largest night prayer and procession against Communism; in 1955, the USSR voluntarily withdrew from Austria and Austria became free.
- keypoint 43 May 17, 1955, Cardinal Ottaviani, Pro-Perfect of the Holy Office, visits Sister Lucia at Coimbra. On the 3rd Secret, she told him it was not to be opened before 1960. When he asked why? she revealed, "Because then it will seem clearer (mais claro)." This information was published in La Documentation Catholique, March 19, 1967, col 542. A Magic Kingdom is born, Disneyland, Walt Disney's dream seen through imagination, warmth and happiness for everyone, a serum to demons, July 17, 1955; 1st major improvement: the 1960s.
- keypoint 44 November 1956, Father Schweigl titled a chapter of his work. "Towards the Year 1960..." and he wrote, "...the third part of the message must remain secret until 1960." (Fatima e la conversione della Russia, p. 13, Rome, 1956).
- keypoint 45 March 1957 Just before its transfer to the Vatican, Bishop John Venancio holds the envelope containing the Third Secret under a strong light, and carefully notes the Secret is about 25 lines long and is written on a single sheet of paper with 3/4 centimeter margins.
- keypoint 46 Sister Lucia interviewed by Father Augustin Fuentes on Dec. 26, 1957 told him many priests will be dragged down by the devil and it is not the end times.

keypoint 47 Jan. 25, 1959: Vatican II announced by Pope John XXIII. May 2, 1959: The so-called antipreparatory phase of Vatican II begins. August 17, 1959: Pope John XXIII reads the text of the Third Secret of Fatima, exclaims, "I do not express any judgement", and then has his personal secretary Msgr. Loris Capovilla (became Cardinal) write on the actual envelope, "I leave it to others to comment or decide."

keypoint 48 Jun. 5, 1960: The preparatory phase of Vatican II begins with 10 commissions Pope John XXIII reads the Third Secret in 1960 from another sealed envelope.

keypoint 49 The public was not allowed to speak or see Sister Lucia, under a new stricter policy of silence except by "explicit permission". Members of her family were excluded by this new policy of 1960. This remained until her death. Her own confessor of many years, Rev. Aparicio, returns from Brazil and is not allowed to see her. John XXIII decided he would never publish the letter of the 3rd Secret. He forbids any and all references regarding Fatima and Russia, in disobedience to the wishes of Heaven, according to Vatican insider Malachi Martin.

keypoint 50 June 4, 1961: President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev hold international meeting; Khrushchev developed a low opinion of Catholic President Kennedy.

keypoint 51 July 2, 1961: The Blessed Mother Mary, escorted by two angels, one was Archangel Michael, begins to secretly explain to four children in Garabandal, Spain a message of hope, sacrifices, penance, prayer and to visit the Blessed Sacrament. Adding, "If not, a chastisement will befall us. The cup is already filling up, and if we do not change, a very great chastisement will come upon us." USSR announces it will cease to conform to the 1958 ban on atomic testing; it is dissolved and over: August 30, 1961. Berlin Wall built. Top Secret NRO established Sept. 1961, with greater focus on military aerial intelligence.

keypoint 52 October 30, 1961, the most powerful nuclear explosion in the history of atomic warfare of 50Mt, at Novaya Zemlya adds tension to the Cold War. May we suggest the movie by Academy Award winners Steven Spielberg and Tom Hanks Bridge of Spies; a screen drama of security tension; in the end is Rudolf Abel, a devout Communist, exchanged on Feb. 10, 1962 for two Americans?

keypoint 54 John M. Haffert publishes a gem of a book Meet The Witnesses of The Miracle of The Sun in 1961, a collection of eyewitness testimonies of Oct. 13, 1917.

keypoint 55 February 3, 1962: The United States economic, commercial, and financial embargo of Cuba proclaimed (Economic Proclamation 3447.) At this point in time, the USSR had no long-range intercontinental weaponry; in fact, in a little known tidbit of history, the guidance systems for those missiles were worthless without precision made tiny ball bearings which no company in all of Europe or the USSR were able to manufacture. Ah! but here is the clincher: only one company in the world was capable of making them, the Bryant Chucking Grinder Co. from Vermont. At first the Dept of Commerce approved export of 45 Centalign-B machines for processing the tiny ball bearings to the USSR, but then killed it.

keypoint 56 It is estimated about 47% of the world's total nuclear fission energy released from atmospheric explosions occurred in the period 1961-1962. July 9, 1962: The United States explodes a 1.45 megaton (equivalent to 1.4 million tons [Mt] of TNT) nuclear bomb in space, 250 miles above the Pacific (codename Starfish). Vatican Commission investigating the apparitions of Garabandal (1961-1962) never bothered to question medical scientists and deliberately averted asking parents or parish priests; result: "a complete whitewash."

keypoint 57 (1962) Cardinal E. Tisserant and Metropolitan Nikodim, who is in full accord with the "Sergius Adaptation" of 1927, secretly meet in Metz, France—the first step of a masterpiece plan outside of world eyes to KO Fatima; progress under the banner of liberty of equality to all religions, pluralism, a new world order; first exposed in Itineraires, April 1963.

keypoint 58 October 12, 1962: Two Russian Orthodox observers land at Fiumicino Airport to attend and watch Vatican II Council abide by the Metz Pact, that no condemnation of Soviet Russia and Communism in general be allowed, in exchange for which two Russian orthodox observers be allowed to attend the Council, as desired by Pope John XXIII. Three days later, U.S. spy plane discovery: Soviets are building missile sites in Cuba, just 100 miles from Florida w/range from New York to anything south of that. Record number of nuclear (total global for 1962) tests conducted by the US and USSR, the most tests of any calendar year, before or since: just over 175.

keypoint 59 October 22, 1962: Pres. Kennedy publicly discloses on nationwide television USSR secret medium-range missiles in Cuba. Relations between USA and USSR break and come to a head.

keypoint 60 Super Secret Metz Pact (1962) absolved the Second Vatican Council, assembled between 1962 and 1965, and any bishop, theologian or periti from debating and officially denouncing Communism. When the written intervention of 450 Catholic Council priests against Communism was submitted, the manuscript was "mysteriously lost" and never brought up for debate; any council member who stood up to discuss the evils of Communism was forced to sit down and be silent. [An account of this debacle is found in Rev. Malachi Martin's book The Jesuits, The Society of Jesus and the Betrayal of the Roman Catholic Church and in The Rhine Flows into the Tiber by Rev. Ralph Wiltgen.] Vatican II modernized the mass; implemented not until 1969. Tellstar became the first satellite to relay live TV across the ocean.

keypoint 61 June 3, 1963: Dr. Gennaro Goglia injects a secret serum of chemicals into the newly deceased body of Pope John XXIII to block the process of decomposition.

keypoint 62 June 17, 1963: Reading of Bible in U.S. public schools unconstitutional.

keypoint 63 June 27, 1963, according to Secretary Capovilla, Pope Paul VI read the Third Secret for the first time on this date. 39 days later, on Aug. 5, the USA, UK and USSR sign a treaty prohibiting nuclear weapons testing in outer space, underwater or in the atmosphere; it is stated an extract of the 3rd Secret printed in the German periodical Neues Europa was read in secret by the leaders of the Anglo-American-Russian accord, which included these words, "great scientists who invent arms, with which half of humanity can be destroyed in a few minutes;" "Satan will know how to find his way to the highest positions in the Church;" a "greatest World War will happen in the second half of the 20th Century;" "fire and smoke will fall from the sky...” “What I have already made known at La Salette through the children Melanie and Maximin, I repeat today before you.” On Nov. 1, 1963 the editors of Neues Europa added the extract was circulated in diplomatic circles and that the authentic text is harsher with the most important part unavailable to them. “It predicts events which will take place in Rome and which will happen to the Vatican and the papacy at the dawn of D-Day, when humanity will be delivered to the divine chastisement.”

keypoint 64 A Pope consecrates again the world, but because of the Metz Pact, Paul VI does not mention Russia in 1964. Xerox introduces fax machine in 1964.

keypoint 65 March 27, 1965: Pope Paul VI read the other text of the Third Secret, the one that is 62-lines long, according to Monsignor Tarcisio Pietro Bertone, 35 years later.

keypoint 66 June 18, 1965: Final Garabandal message is given. Television cameras from Italy are there. A long message; a stern warning; many on road to perdition. (See ebook.) keypoint 67 Sister Maria Nieves is told by Conchita while matriculating in Burgos (1966-1967) of someone called Pope Pope who is the last of the popes before the end times.

keypoint 68 On June 29, 1972, when celebrating a special mass to begin the 10th year of his Pontificate, Pope Paul VI lets slip to the world, “...from some fissure, the Smoke of Satan has entered the temple of God.” He also said, “There was the belief that after (Vatican II) Council there would be a day of sunshine for the history of the Church. Instead,” he said pessimistically, “it was the arrival of a day of clouds, of tempest, of darkness...” He added, something is preternatural and has arrived to intervene with adverse power. The Pope called him, “the devil, this mysterious being that the Letter of St. Paul alludes to.”

keypoint 69 Ball bearings were no longer excluded from the hands of Soviets, the Dept of Commerce approved export of 164 Centalign-B machines to the USSR in 1972.
