

Early February

In France a protest vs COVID (thats not new-- France leads the world in marches with a new march every other month, especially in Paris).

In snowy cold cities Canadians protest on COVID.

In Holland ditto.

CNN: U.S. reduces staff at embassy.

CNBC Shep Smith brings you the world, anybody needs plasma?

Feb. 4 British The Sun.

CBS News Ukraine Norah O'Donnell and David Marin tell it as it is.

Feb. 4 Might as well throw these guys into the news.

Fox News on Ukraine.

82nd Airborne arrives in Poland, at light brigade strength, Feb. 6, 2022.

Not so pretty good news from a pretty lady reporter.

German World News on Ukraine. Ruskie say and repeat “no plans to attack” and yak over and over, THAT the presence of NATO troops will increase tensions. “Will increase?”

AH, not a peep about Russian troop tanks over there increasing in numbers which Russian commentators NEVER yak that that could also be increasing tension. Because, according to them, it is supposed to be only the West that increases tension. However, if Russian troops and tanks head to the border, as they've been doing for a couple of weeks, well, that DOES NOT INCREASE TENSION. Baloney. However, things are serious.

Feb. 9th CBS U.S. mechanized troops sent to Rumanian and Polish lands on the edge of Ukraine border (1.55 mins courtesy of CBS News). Next day, Russia and Belarus start joint military exercises along northern Ukraine border.
